

“Sad but true!”

This year's members total 45 compared to last year's encouraging support of 99. This does mean that the 2006 Competition is now in question due to insufficient funds.

Membership is only part of the funds Music in the Vale relies on

We have had another tremendous response to this year's competition. The singers have 32 entries and we're pleased to see a healthy 7 entries in the senior section. The instrumentalists have also excelled this year with 31 entrants giving 36 performances, 11 of which are in the senior category.

The junior category for both events is really something to see. It may be the first chance these youngsters have had to perform in front of 'strangers' and this can really test their mettle - we have seen tears and nerves set in. Then, you wouldn't believe the transformations - the shy child with the quietist of speaking voices opens their mouth to let out the purest of singing voices imaginable or the tiniest of hands stretch and float across keys with unbelievable discipline and skill.

Why don't you come along throughout the heats (9:30

'til 4:00 each day) and see for yourselves, entry is free.

Please note that we have a new venue this year. Ysgol Gyfun Bro Morgannwg on Colcot Road, Barry has kindly offered us their facilities this year.

Please do not hesitate to ring me should you require directions or check the map on our web site.

The Committee needs your help

The existing Committee of Music in the Vale is down to 10 members having lost 4 key members since the last AGM and gained only 2. We will also be losing another member after this year's competition, stretching our resources even further.

The committee only meets about 8 times throughout the year, 3 times between December and June and more frequently leading up to the competition.

We are all volunteers, only 3 of us with musical backgrounds, the remainder are simply enthusiastic about what the Music in the Vale

Annual Competition can offer our young talented people. So, whether you have a musical background or not, your contribution to the committee would be most welcome.

Please telephone Dawn on 01446 771911 or 07974 855536 to find out more.

More Music in the Vale News

Two evening concerts not to be missed

If you haven't yet attended one of the evening concerts I can only say, you're cheating yourselves out of a good evening's entertainment.

The concerts will take the usual format - the top four of each of the three age groups will return in the evening to perform to an audience of family, friends, members and general public - Singers on Saturday and Instrumentalists Sunday.

The adjudicators will impart their constructive comments to each finalist, sharing the benefit of their years of experience with these musicians of the future.

This year's dates are 13th and 14th November. There will be a charge of £4, £2 (concessions) and £1 (under 16). Tickets can be reserved by phoning the secretary or will be on sale throughout the weekend. The price of the ticket will include light refreshments. All funds raised go towards next year's competition.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Membership News

There are 99 other members out there, reading this newsletter at the same time as you are. It is thanks largely to the tremendous efforts of our Membership Secretary, Margaret Hughes, that most of you have come on board.

Unfortunately, Margaret has recently retired from the committee and the position of Membership Secretary is currently unfilled. We are trying to keep up with the necessary communications and apologies for getting this competition's information to you so late.

We plan to advise you all around June next year, as soon as we have agreed the dates of next year's competition. That way you can put it in your diaries and be sure to be free to come and enjoy what you are helping to support.

Along with our new Treasurer has come a few new decisions. The AGMs will now be held at the beginning of each year (Jan or Feb) to allow the new committee members to settle in before the 'competition rush'. The membership period will run from 1st December to 30th November each year. The logic behind this is that we will be hoping to find new members at the competition and those new fees will go towards the following year's competition.

Thank you to all our existing members for your support this year and we do hope you will continue to support us by forwarding a cheque for £5 per person along with a note with your name and address on. If you would like your newsletter sent to you by email, please also provide an email address.

(70 times a second class stamp = £14.70 - 3 new members to find!)
